

Working with Authentications

Authentications are used to import data from or export data to an external resource using a Treasure Data data connector.

Watch an overview of authentications in this video.

Learn more about working with authentications:

- Creating a New Authentication
- Viewing Authentications
- Editing an Existing Authentication
- Creating a New Source from an Existing Authentication