

Using Workflow to Populate Your Master Segments

Treasure Workflow is used to populate your master segment data model and is also used when you syndicate or send segmented customer data to other systems. You cannot edit these workflows. The workflows are created and maintained by Treasure Data to ensure currency and fluidity of your customer data.

